

FRANK SLEVIN – CHAIR OF BRITISH CYCLING

OUTLINE CURRICULUM VITAE

Recent Career History

2022 – Present	Chair, Rugby League Commercial
2018 – Present	Chair, British Cycling Federation
2015 – 2018	Executive Chair, Hamleys of London (the World’s most recognisable toy retailer)
2014 - 2018	Executive Chair, House of Fraser Group (UK’s largest independent department store chain)
2011 - 2014	Founder, Ashgrove Homes (residential property developer) and Novus Consulting (independent environmental consultancy)
2010 – 2011	CEO, Head of Global Banking, the Americas - HSBC
2007 - 2010	MD, Head of Global Banking, Asia Pacific – HSBC
2002 - 2007	COO Investment Banking, Asia Pacific – Citigroup
1986 – 2002	Various banking roles in Europe, the US and Asia with BNP Paribas, Peregrine Capital, Hambros Bank and Brown Shipley

Education

2012 – 2013	University of Southampton Postgraduate Diploma – Environment Science
1985 - 1986	Imperial College, University of London MSc – Exploration Geophysics
1982 – 1985	University of Manchester BSc – Physics

External Activities

In addition to his business activities, Frank has been actively involved in the charity and not-for-profit sectors. He is currently Chair of the UK National Committee on China; was Chair of the Royal Society for Asian Affairs, a governor of Pangbourne College, and a trustee of Outward Bound and of the HK Society for the Protection of Children. He has also been a member of the Government Relations Committee of the American Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Economic Policy Committee of the HK Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Customer Advisory Board of Thomson Reuters.

Frank is a keen cyclist and started his cycling journey in MTB, moving to Road in his late 30’s. He has raced in Masters events in Asia and the US and remains a regular recreational cyclist. He was the founder of the first HSBC Cycling Team in HK.